Dear Ms Hart,

Thank you for encouraging your students and teachers to participate in Creative Generation – State Schools Onstage 2014. The commitment of all participating students and staff is greatly appreciated and is crucial to the show’s success.

Since its inception in 2005, Creative Generation – State Schools Onstage has grown from 550 students to a cast of more than 1800 and is nationally renowned for showcasing student talent.

The four performances were an outstanding and vibrant display of the diverse talent and opportunities available within our Queensland state schools. The confidence and self-esteem students gained from being involved in Queensland’s largest youth performing arts event is invaluable.

The success of this exceptional program is only possible with the support of the dedicated school communities who come together to support the participants.

I hope you and your school community can watch Network Ten’s broadcast of Creative Generation – State Schools Onstage 2014 on Saturday 6 December at 2 pm.

Once again, thank you for your contribution to this valuable event. We look forward to seeing your students and teachers in Creative Generation – State Schools Onstage 2015.

Yours sincerely,
